Looking back at my own experience with Minecraft, it's so easy to see why people were so obsessed with it. The game was all about survival. It was about building a new life out of nothing. Things that would make you successful weren't free; they required you to work hard for them. But they were worth the wait, because it would mean you'd gather more items over time, and then you could make your house bigger or better fortified. The game was about connecting with your friends, and making sure that they were safe and able to live their own lives in the Minecraft world as well.

Some people just find it hard to see how many Robux they will actually make from their personal game development because the process is difficult and lengthy that the estimated amount of time it takes just for 1 point can be up to 6 months.

People may think that Roblox is a very childish game but in reality it is not. I have seen many adults playing this game, and I believe that they just maybe started in the past few years. The reason why people say Roblox is a child's game is because it has some pretty high minded themes in the games you can play. For example being able to make your own avatar or being able to decorate your own house, these are things that at first glance seems like something you'd do with your friends or family. Of course these are just things to make players feel good about themselves. But really the game is not about anything but just making a character and having fun.

In 2021, a new logo was introduced to represent the company: it consisted of a white capital letter "O" on a black background. The logo underwent several changes under various visual design changes during this period. The "O" was sundered into two smaller, green squares with rounded bottoms that closely resembled the shape of the letter "L", which remained in use until 2021. In 2021, ROBLOX released an entirely new logo based on the previous one: this iteration featured a black capitalized "R" on a white background. It was designed to feature the company's name without any visual association to the original logo. The previous logo is still in use today, albeit with a thicker frame.
