I was also kind of surprised at how far back the game went in time; it was created back in 2021, which I know is quite a long time ago. It's kind of scary how quickly things have changed since then. But though I am young, I thought that Minecraft was always meant for little kids; unlike Roblox, it wasn't purchased by me or my parents, and there were no advertisements present. So my opinion on both games is that they are really great for little kids because they're safe and easy to use. For adults, they are not worth the time. But from what I have heard, and from my own experiences, Roblox is a game that all kindergartners should be playing. It's definitely not recommended for adults or even teenagers.

Roblox provides wireless headsets in the form of headphones and microphones. This enables players to communicate through the game, chat with other Roblox users, and play games with other players. In some online games, players are able to play "mini-games" such as "Horseball" that involve shooting a ball across the screen to attack another player. However, in Roblox, mini-games give physical feedback from hitting objects in the game world; for example, when they jump off a ledge in an abandoned mine shaft.

The second way is by buying them from any of the websites which offer them as in-game purchases with real money like Amazon or iTunes cards. These cards can also be bought for cheaper rates at places like GameStop or Walmart.
