The roblox fly hack is not an entirely trackable game. It has been used to cheat on the game, blow up your inventory with limitless weapons and even get the creator's account. The game uses a form of tracking that makes it possible for people to use loopholes in the system and also detect when someone is using these glitches. The creators of the game have done research into ways to combat this issue, however, no viable solution has been found thus far.

One of the most popular ROBLOX games was "Hacker Escape", which was one of the most visited blogs on ROBLOX prior to 2021. It was a game where the hacker got into an abandoned house, and used numerous exploits to obtain admin privileges, allowing him/her to modify certain aspects of the game. This blog caused heavy controversy in 2021 because it allowed hackers to manipulate and change the settings on their games without consent from ROBLOX. However, after the release of version 1.0, this blog became outdated because developers started using hacks in their games that had not been discovered yet. In May 2021, ROBLOX launched a new blog system to replace the previous one, this paid-for feature was created by Epic Events Inc.

There are 6 seasons in all, with a total of 35 episodes.[45]

ROBLOX also offers a plugin system similar to most other websites that can give access to nearly all items on its website, except for things like accounts and global objects like chat rooms.
