The community is somewhat mature. As far as social media goes, I do not personally think that roblox holds much of a candle in terms of maturity when compared to the likes of Twitter or Facebook - but it certainly does not have the childish undertone that you would find on other sites such as Instagram or snapchat either. In response, Roblox changed the coding of this game so that the users can only use the knife when playing the game, instead of using guns as well. Players who used guns on other players would be banned from Roblox. Roblox stated that they were "going to continue to refine the game".

But it's pretty obvious that you have to pay real money for them or use your parents' credit card to access the store. And if you do use your parents' credit card, then they'll try to find out why you were so interested in a child's game and they will most certainly look at the Roblox website or app, which will reveal that there are so many games with suggestive themes/languaging that it will make your eyes bleed (and your mom/dad's too).

ROBLOX has been criticized for being a scam. This is because many users have claimed that they are scammed by ROBLOX. One of these scams was when a user named "Brianna" was falsely accused of selling copied items, which caused the price of an item to go from $10-$20 to $50-$100 overnight.[50]

ROBLOX is a company characterized by its community-based culture. This is reflected in its games, which are generally hosted on the website (as opposed to the product), and as a result, are built by users for users. The developers at ROBLOX have stated that they are completely open to third party development—the only restriction on what is considered acceptable and permissible is that all products must be compatible with ROBLOX's Terms of Service. Whether ROBLOX soft products will be accepted into the Steam platform is still unconfirmed.

ROBLOX also has a wide variety of blueprints ranging from minigames to full games. ROBLOX's game engine runs within their own website, which they call the "Roblox Platform". The platform also has its own virtual servers that are separated between each user (known as Virtual Worlds). ROBLOX licenses the servers from Sabre Corporation. This means that the servers benefit ROBLOX and not any individual person or company.
