I have been playing roblox games for about two years now. I started out with one of the mini-games (Hotel Tycoon 2). This game was very simple; all you had to do was buy a hotel and look after your guests. As time went on, my friends and I found a new game we wanted to play together (Battlefield 3). It was similar to Call of Duty with better graphics. We liked the game so much that we wanted to transfer our characters from Hotel Tycoon 2 into Battlefield 3. One night, my friend and I were playing on roblox and entered into a "lobby". In a lobby, you can find friends who are online playing games or creating new ones. We had two other friends join in and we started talking about which game we wanted to play together. The next day we all decided on Robloxian Life.

And if you do use your parents' credit card, then they'll try to find out why you were so interested in a child's game and they will most certainly look at the Roblox website or app, which will reveal that there are so many games with suggestive themes/language that it will make your eyes bleed (and your mom/dad's too).
