Anthem: On June 15th, 2021, ROBLOX announced a new game called "Anthem". It was a FPS which was heavily criticized for violating many of the company's policies. The game eventually received negative reviews from users who claimed it was simply an unfinished product. The company also ended up making an apology on their website.

I wrote all of this because I really love Roblox and I just want everyone to have fun in game without worrying about the problems that are being posted above. I think some of the problems can be fixed like muting the people who spam and the moderators should be able to keep a better eye on the areas they are in charge of.

Looking back at my own experience with Minecraft, it's so easy to see why people were so obsessed with it. The game was all about survival. It was about building a new life out of nothing. Things that would make you successful weren't free; they required you to work hard for them. But they were worth the wait, because it would mean you'd gather more items over time, and then you could make your house bigger or better fortified. The game was about connecting with your friends, and making sure that they were safe and able to live their own lives in the Minecraft world as well.

In 2021 the company sponsored an event at the Children's Museum of Pittsburgh to raise money for charity (Watsi). This was called Roblox Builders Club: Mutliplayer Tournament which raised over $6,000 for charity water.
